

MINUTES OF THE TWENTY- SIXTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE GAUTENG CHAPTER OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIETY FOR LABOUR LAW, HELD via ZOOM on 31st MAY 2023 AT 16H00

There were 68 people who registered for the AGM and 46 proxies were received.

1. CONFIRMATION OF MINUTES OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH AGM

The Minutes of the twenty-fifth Annual General Meeting held on 1st June 2022 were proposed by Moses Baloyi and seconded by Jurgen Du Plessis.

2. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHAPTER'S AFFAIRS AND INCOME AND EXPENSES STATEMENT – MAY 2022– MAY 2023

Moses Baloyi delivered the 26th Annual report and shared highlights of the year which are as follows:

- The chapter has 600 paid up members, 148 renewals and 236 expired as of April 2023 We are targeting the expired members from pre Covid to renew membership. Thank you to those who have paid.
- The Chapter's financial position remains healthy and has recovered well since the Covid pandemic.
- Our national webinars hosted by the different chapters continue to be well attended by the members and there were 16 events during the reporting period May 2022 – May 2023.
- As we have offered a mix of seminars and webinars, we are thankful for the speakers that partake in our webinars and give of their time to present to the members as well as the firms that offer their technical team for the webinars.
- The Probono project is operating very well in the Johannesburg Labour Court.
- The Canadian fellowship started 2nd May 2023 and will end July 2023. We wish to thank all the companies who are hosting the students. We wish the students well during their time in South Africa
- In terms of the 2023/2024 committee, no vote was required, as there were a sufficient number of committee members. We welcome the new committee and thank them for their time.

3. 2023/2024 COMMITTEE MEMBERS

There were no votes required as there were sufficient members on the committee and there was a quorum. We would like to thank the committee members who have retained their seats for serving another year as the Gauteng Chapter committee.

4. GENERAL

- The AGM was over at 16h15 and was followed by a presentation by Ruben Orton on “Are some forms of discrimination treated more equal than others in labour law?”
- Ruben was done at 16h55 and there was a Q&A session after that engaged the members.
- After Ruben’s presentation, Moses took the time to thank the members for their support in attending the AGM and thanked the Committee for standing for another year and welcomed the new committee members. He concluded by saying:

I am looking forward to a fruitful year in the new SASLAW term and the continued existence of the selfless culture within SASLAW. We owe this to the membership and sponsors who ensure that a mark is made in this respect. The stats are my witness to this effect, most particularly on the Probono project. I am optimistic that all the members of SASLAW will proudly cherish their involvement in this noble course. Thank you.
